Are you a resident of the North Shore?
Yes, I have lived on the North Shore in Lago Vista for 14 years.

How long have you owned The Beanstalk Consignment Shop?
I have owned The Beanstalk for eight years.

What inspired you to open The Beanstalk Consignment Shop?
I was looking to work more locally, so that I could be closer to my home. The building we are currently in went up for rent and I couldn't resist giving The Beanstalk a go!

How would you describe a day in the life at The Beanstalk Consignment Shop? One of the best parts of my day is seeing what new treasures someone brings in. I love getting to know people in the community and connecting with them. The Beanstalk is the perfect stop for vacationers to see what's going around our town and what there is to do.

How would you describe The Beanstalk Consignment Shop? I believe we have something for everyone. Items in the shop change all the time and we have new great finds every day!

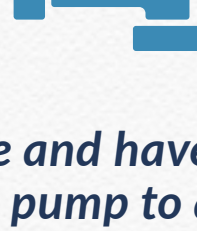

What is your favorite time of year at The Beanstalk Consignment Shop? Even though it's hot outside, I love summer. We get to work outside and it's usually the busiest time of the year.

How can someone get in touch with you to learn more about The Beanstalk Consignment Shop? The best way is to stop by the store and talk with me in person. If not, then email at thebeanstalk@att.net or call us at 512-267-5437.
