

GET TO KNOW

THE CANDLELIGHT RANCH FOUNDATION

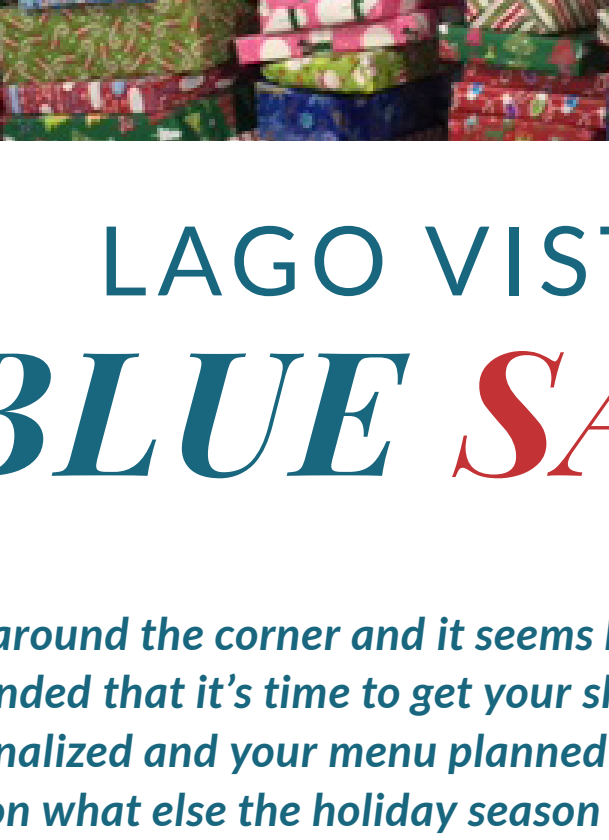

Imagine a beautiful day spent in the Texas Hill Country on the North Shore of Lake Travis exploring and learning about nature, team-building, food sustainability, water lifecycles, wildlife viewing, nature hikes and more. Inviting children with special needs to experience this unique environment and to participate in multiple nature, science and sensory learning was the original vision of the Barr family who created the nonprofit Candlelight Ranch and donated the property for this and future generations to visit and discover nature – and themselves.

Candlelight Ranch provides therapeutic and educational nature-based programs to enrich the lives of at-risk youth, children with disabilities and their families. The Ranch provides a source of healing, balance and peace of mind to underserved children whose full expression is limited by physical, emotional, behavioral, health or financial restraints. Staff and devoted volunteers ensure that each child participates and experiences nature and science learning in our beautiful Hill Country setting. We had the opportunity to visit with, Executive Director Jenn Hartner, to learn more about this fantastic organization.

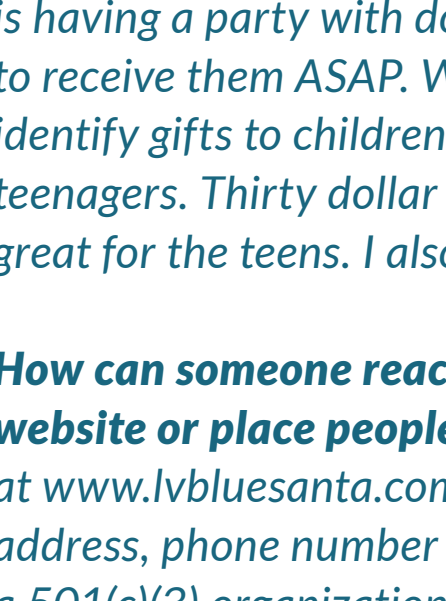

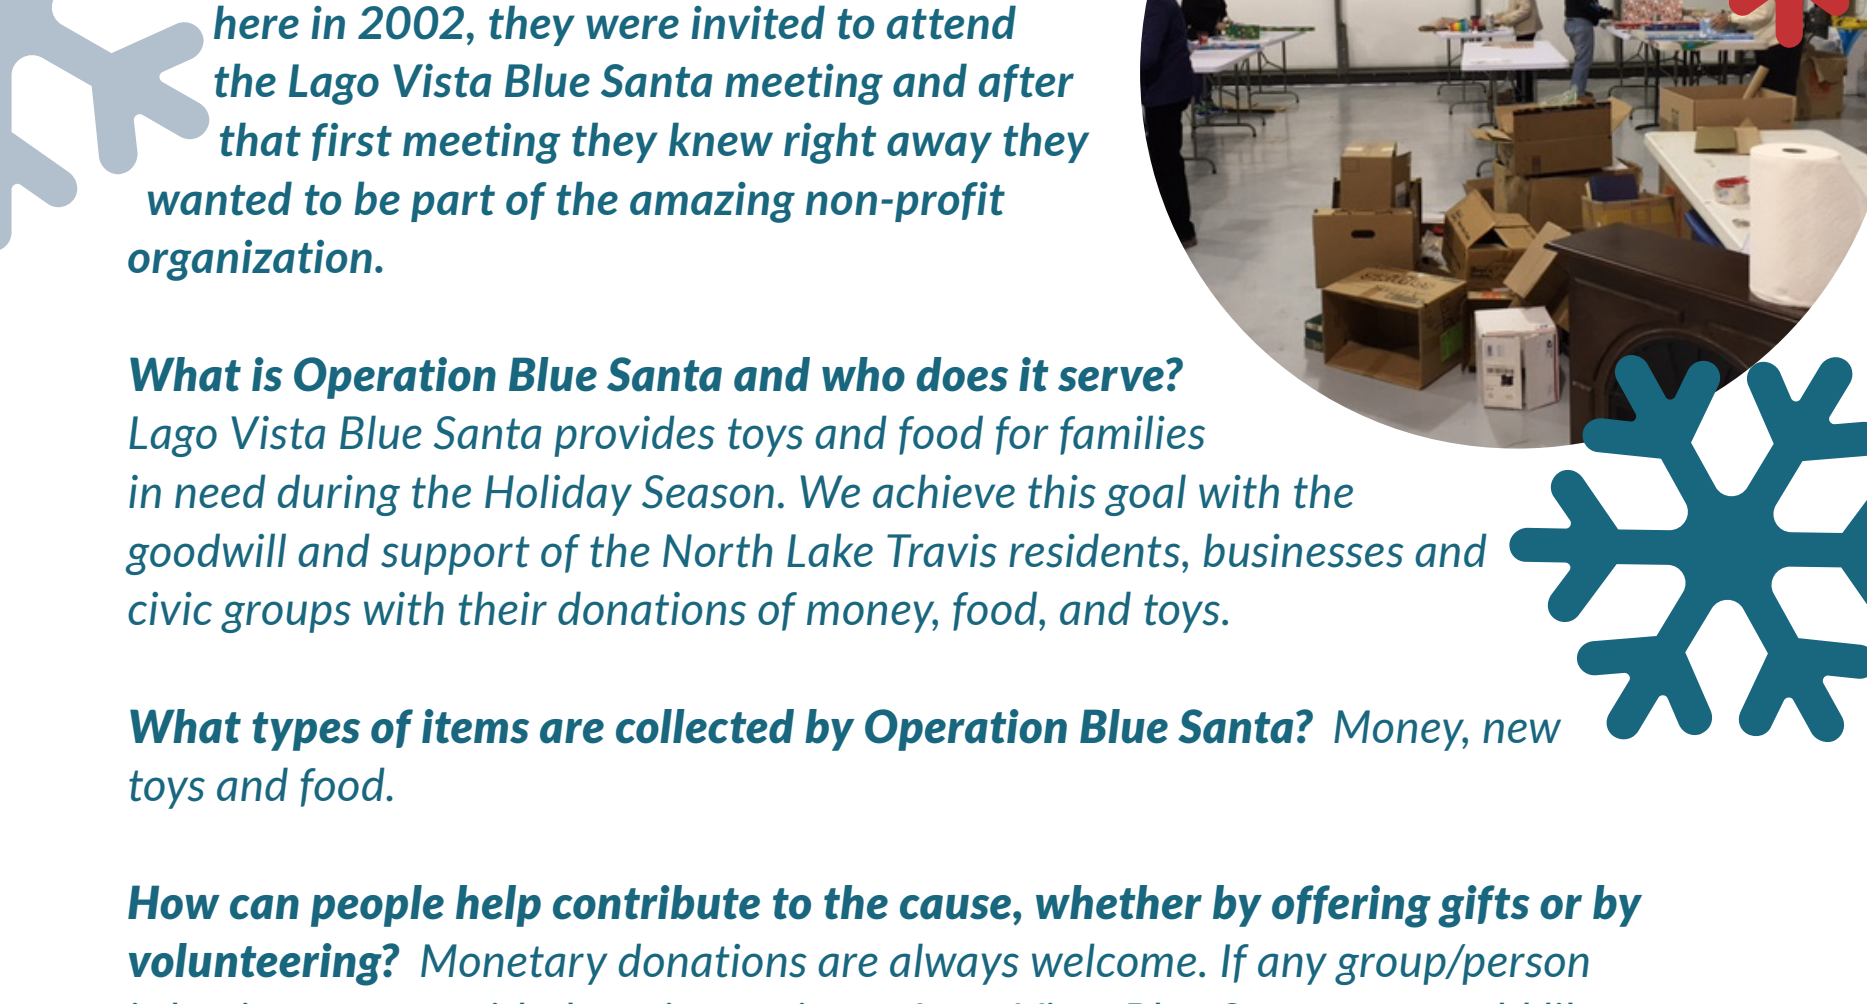

How does Candlelight Ranch partner with the community? Candlelight Ranch actively outreaches into the school and nonprofit communities to build awareness of the facilities, resources and flexible nature curriculum. The Ranch offers its unique and accessible facilities and innovative customized programming to numerous other nonprofit youth-serving organizations and to schools to enhance and extend their special programming.

Candlelight Ranch currently partners with over 30 central Texas nonprofits and schools including the following agencies and organizations, Texas School for the Blind and Visually Impaired, Helping Hand Home for Children, The Boys and Girls Clubs of the Highland Lakes, Juvenile Justice for Travis, Burnet and Llano counties, Marble Falls Elementary Life Skills Group, Phoenix Center, Falls Career High School, Leander ISD, Austin ISD, Lake Travis ISD, Marble Falls ISD, Pflugerville ISD and Round Rock ISD.

it's that time of year AGAIN

LAGO VISTA BLUE SANTA

The holidays are around the corner and it seems like everywhere you look you're reminded that it's time to get your shopping done, travel arrangements finalized and your menu planned for holiday activities. However, why not focus on what else the holiday season can bring? The checklist at the Lago Vista Blue Santa is focused on getting toys and food to families in need.

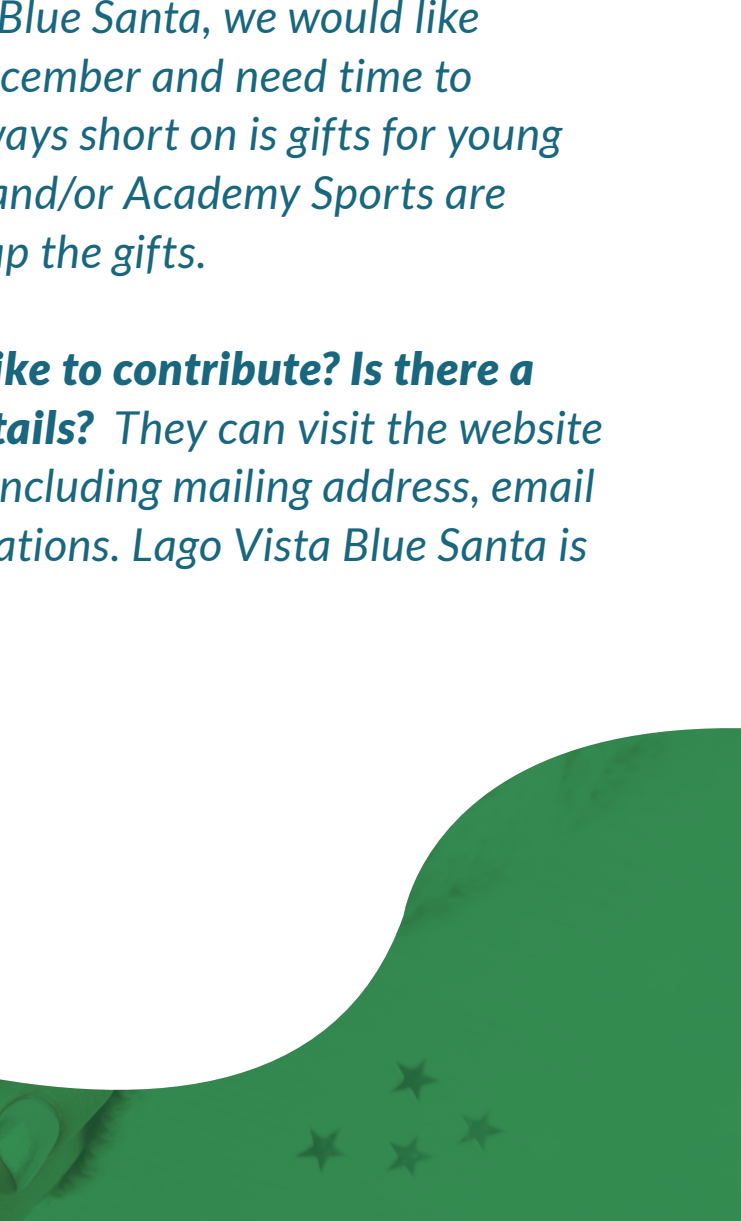

Larry and Liz Hagler have been part of the Lago Vista Blue Santa for 15 years. After moving here in 2002, they were invited to attend the Lago Vista Blue Santa meeting and after that first meeting they knew right away they wanted to be part of the amazing non-profit organization.

What is Operation Blue Santa and who does it serve? Lago Vista Blue Santa provides toys and food for families in need during the Holiday Season. We achieve this goal with the goodwill and support of the North Lake Travis residents, businesses and civic groups with their donations of money, food, and toys.

What types of items are collected by Operation Blue Santa? Money, new toys and food.

How can people help contribute to the cause, whether by offering gifts or by volunteering? Monetary donations are always welcome. If any group/person is having a party with donations going to Lago Vista Blue Santa, we would like to receive them ASAP. We start wrapping in early December and need time to identify gifts to children. One of the areas we are always short on is gifts for young teenagers. Thirty dollar ($30) gift cards from Kohl's and/or Academy Sports are great for the teens. I also have volunteers to help wrap the gifts.

How can someone reach out to you if they would like to contribute? Is there a website or place people can visit for additional details? They can visit the website at www.lvbluesanta.com for additional information including mailing address, email address, phone number and a PayPal button for donations. Lago Vista Blue Santa is a 501(c)(3) organization.
